The Zenith Brass Ensemble will present its 15th Annual Fall Concert on Sunday, Nov. 22, 2009 at 7:00 pm at the Clawson High School Auditorium, 101 John M St., Clawson.

This family concert has a wide variety of music for the entire family. All will enjoy the musicianship and enthusiasm of these outstanding youth musicians. The concert announcer will provide an interesting background commentary on each selection.

The Zenith Brass Ensemble is made up of thirty-four talented youth brass and percussion players in the Troy, Michigan area. Members are selected by audition and rehearse once a week to prepare three concerts each year. Founded in 1995, this all-brass and percussion ensemble has a wide-ranging repertoire and specialized brass and percussion instruction, and draws its members from high school music programs in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties. You can keep current with Zenith activities by accessing the web page at zenithbrass.org.
