

Rehearsing in Rochester Hills, Zenith Brass attracts members from a number of high school bands across Oakland and Macomb counties. We want Membership in Zenith to be a supplement to those school band programs; Zenith gives first priority to its members' school band obligations.

Zenith musicians are regular participants in the MSBOA Solo and Ensemble Festivals and study with the best private teachers in the area.

Zenith Brass

Zē'·nith, n. 1. highest point or state; culmination. 2. apex, summit.

The Zenith Brass performs a wide variety of transcriptions and original music for brass. Drawing on the brass choir literature for college and professional organizations, the repertoire is new and exciting. Members find the all-brass instrumentation challenging and fast paced.

The Zenith Brass is designed for proficient, motivated players. We perform a large amount of music with a minimum of rehearsal.

Director Mark Petty performed in the University of Michigan Symphony Band under William Revelli. Originally trained as a percussionist and pianist, he studied trumpet with Kevin Good and Gordon Simmons and conducting with Dr. Greg Cunningham and Dr. Jeffrey Heisler.

Petty has worked with high school age musicians since 1970 as a music instructor, coach and consultant. He has studied and researched the British Brass Band movement and the large symphonic brass ensemble. He founded the Zenith Brass in 1995.

The Zenith Brass is designed for proficient, motivated players. We perform a large amount of music with a minimum of rehearsal.

Alumni are employed as engineers, scientists, teachers, professors, doctors, clergy and in many other professions.

Two alumni are performing in the Boston Symphony and the US Marine Band.
